WHAT DO WE MEAN BY TEAM BASED AND TEEN LED?

Challenge and Conquest are designed so that you organize your youth group into smaller teams of about 10-15 teens, who are around the same age. Each team is led by one or two teen leaders who are usually 2 or 3 years older than the group they lead. This is small group mentoring or peer ministry where everything is done in teams especially the weekly activities & service projects. The youth minister and adult leaders work with the teen leaders, training them and helping them prepare to lead their team activities each week. In this way, the youth group may be large in number but no one will feel lost in the crowd because they are part of a team with a team leader looking out for them.

Peer mentoring is not only a life changing experience for the teen leaders, it truly makes an impact on the younger teens when they learn about their faith and see positive role models in their team leaders, who are only a few years older than they are.

YOU CAN REACH HUNDREDS OF TEENS IN YOUR YOUTH GROUP WITH JUST A HANDFUL TEAM LEADERS.

WHAT MAKES THE CHALLENGE & CONQUEST CURRICULUM UNIQUE?

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

In Challenge and Conquest, our curriculum is based off the questions teens have about God, their faith, the world, and themselves. The theme for each week is a question. The weekly activity in the Team Leader Guidebooks gives the team leader a path to lead the team down and discover the answer to the question of the week.

First, they turn to the YOUCAT to find a solid catechetical answer to the question. Then the team leader goes through the 6 parts of the Challenge or Conquest Weekly Meeting where they gain a better understanding of the question of the week.

GROUNDED IN THE CATECHISM

HUNDREDS OF GAMES & ACTIVITIES

Each weekly meeting has at least one game, activity or experience; relevant video clips; a gospel reflection to find how Jesus answered the question and at least one saint or story of someone who discovered the answer in their own life. The games are not listed on the charts.

The curriculum and guide for each weekly activity is in the Team Leader Guidebooks but we also have a CD or USB drive and online resource center with hundreds of printouts and additional material that to help the team leader lead the meeting.

HUNDREDS OF DOWNLOADS
& PRINTOUTS

ADAPTED FOR BOYS & GIRLS

On the Curriculum maps, you will see that Challenge and Conquest have the same theme or question each week but sometimes the saints, games and activities differ to work better with boys or girls.

The curriculum charts for the YEAR 1 and YEAR 2 can be found on the following pages. Both curriculum charts are similar but with different questions, saints and gospels. We have a two year cycle so that it does not get repetitive for the teens. We also update and add new videos, activities and material each year to the curriculum.

NEVER REPETITIVE ALWAYS NEW

VIRTUE CENTERED CURRICULUM?

The virtue centered curriculum in Challenge & Conquest encourages teens to put their faith into action each week. The weekly meetings and activities encourage the teams to live out what they have learned. Every year we have new virtues & saints for each month. These are the virtues we encourage the teens to live for that month & to get to know the life of that saint. These saint & virtues can be found in the calendars which are included in all of our member, team leader and adult leader kits.

EXAMPLE OF THE CHALLENGE TEAM LEADER GUIDEBOOKS

Week 3:
WHY AM I HERE IN THIS WORLD?
WHAT IS MY MISSION?

Before: Prep & Plan

This section is meant to be a guide to help you prepare this week's meeting & activity for your team.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: Why am I here in this world? What is my mission?

DEEPER NEED WE ARE RESPONDING TO: I need to understand I am important.
CONVICTIONS & DECISIONS TO REACH THIS WEEK: I have a mission in the Church and I am here for a purpose. We want to make this world a better place.
WHAT IS THE ANSWER TO THE QUESTION?

Each one of us is here in the world to love God and other people. God created you and placed you in this world in a specific family, city, school, parish, so that you could make a difference in the lives of people around you. Sometimes we want to fast forward to the future and see how our lives will affect other people and the world. But we need to start today in the little things, loving and helping the people who cross our path every day. Change lives and love today because then you will change lives and love tomorrow.

MAIN IDEAS:

 These ideas will help you answer this week's question. Highlight the main ideas that jump out at you so that you can have them clear in your mind.

You are a child of God. "God created us out of free and unselfish love" (YOUCAT #2) from the surplus of his generous love. You know how much care parents have for a new baby. God cares for you more than that because you are his beloved child. Nothing can take God's love away. God's love makes us who we are.

You are on earth to love both God and others. Once we receive God's love, we need to respond by loving him and loving everyone else he put here to help us. Jesus sums this up in the two great commandments to love God and love others as yourself. Love is not something abstract. We love people and God in the little everyday things of our life. We sometimes wonder why God made us the way we are and put us here on earth. We want to know if we can make a difference in the world. The answer is always yes - we can change the world and lives of the people around us everyday by loving them. When larger opportunities come up in our lives we will know how to respond with love too.

Week 3:
WHY AM I HERE IN THIS WORLD?
WHAT IS MY MISSION?

4 Connect → To Christ: Gospel Reflection

 Remember - the gospel reflection is a moment to help the girls understand how Jesus responded to this week's question with his life or his words in the gospel. Choose one of the girls to read the passage.

GOSPEL READING Greatest Commandment Matthew 22:24-30

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

GOSPEL INSIGHTS

Explain the gospel passage to your team so that they can better understand the life of Jesus

Maybe sometimes we think that everyone treated Jesus nicely and listened to what he had to say. That was not the case. In this passage the Pharisees and Sadducees were arguing (they did not agree on everything just like Republicans and Democrats) and they were trying to get Jesus to choose sides. He did not so they brought a scholar of the law - otherwise known as a lawyer - and had him ask Jesus about which law was most important. This is a tricky question because there were 10 commandments and they were all important in one way or another. The Pharisees knew that there was really no correct answer to this question. Jesus knew they were trying to trap him or confuse him. So Jesus went to the heart of the matter and did not try to pick one of the ten commandments. Instead he summarized all of the commandments in two simple new commandments - love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul and mind and love your neighbor as yourself. In fact the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the YouCAT explain the commandments in these two categories. (Try to put all the commandments into these two categories with your team. For example, "You shall not kill falls under the second commandment.") So in this passage Jesus realizes that this man is asking him - what is the most important thing I need to do in this life? Why are we here? What is our purpose? Jesus' answer gives us the key to our mission here on this earth: loving God and loving other people. Everything falls into those categories.

Week 3:
WHY AM I HERE IN THIS WORLD?
WHAT IS MY MISSION?

1 Team Time

What is the plan this week for the beginning of the meeting? A game? Fun idea for snack? Special occasion? Icebreaker?

2 Getting Started

Start off with a prayer. You can say a Hail Mary, Glory Be or the Holy Spirit Prayer. Who is there this week?

Let your team know the question of the day. Why am I here in this world? What is my mission?

Let them know what else you have planned for the meeting

3 Experience - Activity:

ACTIVITY 1: BANDAID RELAY

BANDAID

RELAY

Discussion: This game is for the girls to see that each person is important in affecting the lives of other people. Each person on the team can effect the others. Ask the girls if they remember the story of the Good Samaritan in the Bible. Have them explain what happens to the poor man on the side of the road. Make sure they bring up the following points: (1) He was hurt by someone and left alone. (2) Several people passed him by and did nothing or ignored him. (3) Finally a Samaritan - the enemy of his people- stopped and helped him. (4) The Samaritan went beyond the call of duty to help this man, feeding him and giving him shelter. Activity: Divide the team into two groups. Provide each team member with one band-aid and one strip of toilet paper (approximately 30 sheets long). The toilet paper represents bandages (real gauze bandages work best, but can be expensive). Each team chooses one "injured man" This team member will go to one end of the room and lay down in the floor. All other team members will remain on the opposite end of the room and will represent the Good Samaritan. The game is played as a relay race. Each team member will take a turn running to the other side of room and placing either their band aid and "bandage" on the injured man and running back to the line and tagging the next team member. After the last team member returns, all team members will run the floor, pick up the injured man and return him to the other side of the room. The first team to get back on the other side of the room wins.

St. Laura of Catherine of Siena

Laura Montoya was born in 1874 in Columbia. During the Colombian Civil War, her father was killed, and the family was left in poverty. So Laura was sent to live with her grandmother. When Laura was 16, to help her family in its financial difficulties and she went to school to become an elementary school teacher. She did not limit herself to educating the students simply in academic knowledge, but she helped to spread Gospel teaching and values.

She also felt called to the religious life, her heart set on God alone, and dreamed of one day becoming a cloistered nun; but at the same time, though she felt growing within her the desire to spread the Gospel to the farthest corners of the earth, to those who had never met Jesus Christ. Laura wanted to work with those who were forgotten because racial discrimination. In 1914, she founded the Congregation of the Missionary Sisters of Mary Immaculate and St. Catherine of Siena. She left the city with four other young women and went to the rural areas to live among the native Indians.

She was known for her work with indigenous peoples, and as a strong role model for South American girls. She taught by example "to educate with love" as the only way to teach the Indians, the way which allowed access into their heart and culture to bring them Jesus Christ. She spent her whole life fulfilling that mission. The last nine years of her life were lived in a wheelchair. She died after a prolonged illness in 1949. Today her Missionary Sisters work in 19 countries throughout America, Africa and Europe. She was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 2004 and canonized by Pope Francis in May 2013.

"There's a need for interdependent women, valiant and on fire with the love of God, who would be able to unite their lives with those of the poor, to fit them toward God." - St. Laura of Catherine of Siena

WEEK #3 PREP & PLAN
46 WEEKLY ACTIVITY

EXPERIENCE: DYNAMIC ACTIVITY

Remember - the activity is supposed to help the boys have an experience that leads them to answer the question of the week.

TEN FOR $10 GAME

CHECK IT OUT:
What would you do with $10.00 in your pocket?

MAKE IT HAPPEN:

- Set Up: Print out the Ten for $10 Tickets from the Team Leader USB drive or Online Resource Center. The tickets have some problems or needs in the world today. The tickets should be taped up on a white board or wall with reusable tape and flipped around. Split the team into two groups. Print out the $10 "checks" from the Team Leader USB drive or Online Resource Center and give 10 to each team.
- Gameplay: The team leader flips one of the problem tickets around on the board and reads off the problem. The two teams have 2 minutes to talk over what they can do with $10 to solve that problem. Then both teams get up and make a pitch or bid for that ticket, explaining how they could solve that problem or make a difference using the $10. The team that has the best idea to use the $10 wins the Ticket. If you prefer not to choose the best one, you can use a timer and after 1 minute the team with an idea to present can win the ticket. The team that wins that ticket, can pick the next ticket to flip. Then that ticket is read and the game continues the same way. The team with the most tickets at the end of the game, wins!

WRAP IT UP:

Finish up the activity by having the boys talk about what they would usually have done with $10 and what an impact these ideas would make. We have much more than $10 in our pockets to help the world - we have our whole life, our personal talents and we can make a difference. Before you finish up you can choose to watch this video listed below on the Conquest YouTube Channel. It is a bit long but shows what some kids did with $10 to make a difference.

48 WEEKLY ACTIVITY

CONNECT: TO CHRIST - GOSPEL REFLECTION

Remember - the gospel reflection is a moment to help the boys understand how Jesus responded to the question of the week with his life or his words on the gospel. Choose one of the boys to read the passage.

GOSPEL READING:

MATTHEW 22: 24-30

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENTS

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophet depend on these two commandments."

GOSPEL INSIGHTS:

Maybe sometimes we think that everyone treated Jesus nicely and listened to what he had to say. That was not the case. In this passage, the Pharisees and Sadducees were arguing that they did not agree on everything just like Republicans and Democrats) and they were trying to get Jesus to choose sides. He did not, so they brought a scholar of the law (obviously knows as a lawyer) and had him ask Jesus about which law was most important. This is a tricky question because they had the Ten Commandments and they were all important in one way or another. The Pharisees knew that there was really no correct answer to this question. Jesus knew they were trying to trap him or confuse him. So Jesus went to the heart of the matter and did not try to pick one of the Ten Commandments. Instead he summarized all of the commandments in two simple new commandments - love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind and love your neighbor as yourself. In fact the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the YouAcat explain the commandments in these two categories. (Try to put all the commandments into these two categories with your team. For example, You shall not kill falls under the second commandment.) So in this passage Jesus realizes what this man was asking him - what is the most important thing I need to do in this life? Why are we here? What is our purpose? Jesus' answer gives us the key to our mission here on this earth: loving God and loving other people. Everything falls into those categories.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS TO TALK ABOUT

- In your life, what are your top two rules that you live by? What guides your whole day and gives meaning to everything you do?
- What are some ways that we can put God first and make loving him the number one thing on our "To-Do" list?

TALK ABOUT IT!

CONQUEST WEEKLY ACTIVITY GUIDE

WHY DO I NEED TO GO TO CONFESSION?

YOUCAT #316 HOW CAN WE DISTINGUISH SERIOUS SINS (MORTAL SINS) FROM LESS SERIOUS (VENIAL) SINS? Serious sin destroys the divine power of love in a person's heart, without which there can be no eternal beatitude. Hence it is also called mortal sin. Serious sin breaks with God, whereas venial sin only strains the relationship with him. A serious sin cuts a person off from God. One requirement for such a sin is that it be opposed to an important value, for instance, directed against life or God (for example, murder, blasphemy, adultery, and so on) and that it be committed with full knowledge and full consent. Venial sins are opposed to secondary values (honor, truth, property, and so on) or are committed without full knowledge of their seriousness or without full consent of the will. Such sins disrupt the relationship with God but do not sever it.

SAINTS & INSPIRATIONAL STORIES

ST CHARLES BOROMEO
St Charles Borromeo understood the importance of put your faith into practice and living your beliefs. He not only realized the importance of confession in his own life, but he dedicated his efforts to teach others about the faith by opening schools, parishes, and ultimately helping write the catechism.

SERVANT OF GOD FR ELIA COMINI
Fr Elia put his life at risk to offer the sacraments to prisoners and those in danger. He knew the importance confession has in helping people be at peace with God and themselves, especially when their lives were at risk. He heard confessions in the prison when he himself was captive.

GOSPEL
 JESUS SAID TO THEM AGAIN, "PEACE BE WITH YOU. AS THE FATHER HAS SENT ME, SO I SEND YOU." AND WHEN HE HAD SAID THIS, HE BREATHED ON THEM AND SAID TO THEM, "RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT. WHOSE SINS YOU FORGIVE ARE FORGIVEN THEM, AND WHOSE SINS YOU RETAIN ARE RETAINED."— JOHN 20: 19-23

CAN I REALLY EFFECT THE WORLD AROUND ME?

YOUCAT #347 WHY IS "NOT PRACTICING WHAT YOU PREACH" SUCH A SERIOUS DEFICIENCY IN A CHRISTIAN? Agreement between one's life and one's witness is the first requirement for proclaiming the Gospel. Not practicing what you profess is therefore hypocrisy, a betrayal of the Christian duty to be "salt of the earth" and "light of the world." Paul was the one who reminded the Church in Corinth: "You show that you are a letter from Christ . . . written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts" (2 Cor 3:3). Christians themselves, not the things they say, are Christ's "letters of recommendation" (2 Cor 3:2) to the world.

SAINTS & INSPIRATIONAL STORIES

BLESSED IRENE STEFANI
Blessed Sister Irene Stefani effected the people in her lives form the time she was young – caring for her brothers and sisters. This helped her to be ready for the larger mission in life in Africa as a missionary nun and nurse. She effected so many people that she was known as the sister of mercy.

FR ALOYSIUS SCHWARTZ
Fr Aloysius Schwartz changed thousands of lives in the Philippines through the schools and orphanages he began. He is living proof that if you put your mind to making an impact in the world, you can truly make a wonderful change in people's lives. He believed and worked hard to offer a home and education to children.

GOSPEL ANSWERS

THE NEXT DAY JESUS DECIDED TO GO TO GALILEE, AND HE FOUND PHILIP. AND JESUS SAID TO HIM, "FOLLOW ME." PHILIP FOUND NATHANAEAL AND TOLD HIM, "WE HAVE FOUND THE ONE ABOUT WHOM MOSES WROTE IN THE LAW, AND ALSO THE PROPHETS, JESUS, SON OF JOSEPH, FROM NAZARETH." PHILIP SAID TO HIM, "COME AND SEE."

For the kindness and charity of her resurrection, she showed her love for Christ.

CONQUEST

WHAT ARE PEOPLE SAYING ABOUT

AND CONQUEST ?

FORGED IN VIRTUE. CALLED TO SERVE.

“ I think it’s an excellent program. Teens have an opportunity to grow in faith both younger ones who are participants and also the older ones who serve as role models. It gives them wonderful footing for the years ahead as they enter high school and college. It’s shaped them in their personal values, it’s deepened their personal relationship with Christ, and given them a solid foundation of the teachings of the faith. It’s focused on charity and the command to love one’s neighbor - what a great lesson to learn at a young age.” - MSGR. STUMPF, PASTOR, INDIANAPOLIS

“ Challenge and Conquest has been an incredible joining of all the pieces of our parish. With the school principal and the director of religious education helping me to communicate, we have been able to take High School youth and implement this program to help them be the effective Catholics in a fun way.” - MARGARET MERRILL, YOUTH MINISTER, TENNESSEE

“ Challenge fosters the gift of self at a time in life when they tend to be quite self-absorbed. It’s truly remarkable to see how these girls grow into young women who are formed in their faith.” - SALLY IVERS, VOLUNTEER, COLORADO

“It’s a program that helps you understand that it’s not weird to have faith. It’s actually cool and fun, to believe in God.”

- JEFF SHEPHERD, DAD & VOLUNTEER

“IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO PERSEVERE IN A FERVENT EVANGELIZATION UNLESS WE ARE CONVINCED FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE THAT IT IS NOT THE SAME THING TO HAVE KNOWN JESUS AS NOT TO HAVE KNOWN HIM, NOT THE SAME THING TO WALK WITH HIM AS TO WALK BLINDLY, NOT THE SAME THING TO HEAR HIS WORD AS NOT TO KNOW IT, AND NOT THE SAME THING TO CONTEMPLATE HIM, TO WORSHIP HIM, TO FIND OUR PEACE IN HIM, AS NOT TO. IT IS NOT THE SAME THING TO TRY TO BUILD THE WORLD WITH HIS GOSPEL AS TO TRY TO DO SO BY OUR OWN LIGHTS. WE KNOW WELL THAT WITH JESUS LIFE BECOMES RICHER AND THAT WITH HIM IT IS EASIER TO FIND MEANING IN EVERYTHING. THIS IS WHY WE EVANGELIZE. A TRUE MISSIONARY, WHO NEVER CEASES TO BE A DISCIPLE, KNOWS THAT JESUS WALKS WITH HIM, SPEAKS TO HIM, BREATHE WITH HIM, WORKS WITH HIM. HE SENSES JESUS ALIVE WITH HIM IN THE MIDST OF THE MISSIONARY ENTERPRISE. UNLESS WE SEE HIM PRESENT AT THE HEART OF OUR MISSIONARY COMMITMENT, OUR ENTHUSIASM SOON WANES AND WE ARE NO LONGER SURE OF WHAT IT IS THAT WE ARE HANDING ON; WE LACK VIGOR AND PASSION. A PERSON WHO IS NOT CONVINCED, ENTHUSIASTIC, CERTAIN AND IN LOVE, WILL CONVINC NOBODY.”
